A Question of Origins?

Shelby MacFarlane
2018. Creation Ministries International 232 pages.
Regular price - $15.00, Member price - $12.75.

A valuable resource of information on a wide variety of topics related to creation. Full color illustrations help the reader understand the scientific evidence for creation and the scientific conflicts of evolution. Subjects discussed include origin of life, genetics, radiometric dating, fossils, geology, and the implication of a creation or evolution worldview.

The Biotic Message: Evolution Versus Message Theory

Walter ReMine
1993. Saint Paul Science, 538 pages (hard cover).
Regular price - $22.00, Member Price - $18.70.

This powerful classic still provides an excellent discussion of the problems with naturalism and the untestability of many evolutionist's arguments. Mr. ReMine shows that the unity of living systems points to one creator, and the pattern of diversity found in life can only be explained by creation.

The Call of the Cosmos

Illustra Media
2018. 59 Minutes DVD.
Regular price - $15.00 Member price - $12.75.

This visually stunning video gives an informative and entertaining exploration of the universe and its Creator. Presenting fascinating evidence for design and purpose of the cosmos, this video transports viewers to some of the most beautiful; and mysterious regions of creation. Echoing what the Psalmist observed, this video shows that the heavens truly do declare God's glory.

Origin: Design, Chance and the First Life on Earth

Illustra Media
2016. 46 Minutes. DVD.
Regular price - $20.00, Member price - $17.00.

Sequel to the popular Unlocking the Mystery of Life. This vividly illustrated documentary examines the contemporary ideas about life's origin and finds them generally based on speculation and assumptions. How does the complexity and sophistication of life arise without a creator?

Receding Floodwaters

Michael Oard
2018. Awesome Science Media. 89 Minutes. DVD
Regular price - $15.00, Member price - $12.75.

CRS Board Member, Mike Oard, takes the viewer on a journey to see unique and fascinating evidence for the Genesis Flood. He explains how receding flood water would have formed and shaped many geologic features of the earth's surface.
